14th International Scientific Conference of the Romanian–German University of Sibiu in partnership with Wilhelm Löhe Hochschule für angewandte Wissenschaften form Fürth and Diakonie Neuendettelsau, Germany

Social Entrepreneurship in the context of the post-crisis period and the implementation of the Europe 2020 Strategy

Sibiu, Romania
October 30th – 31st, 2014

The European Union must adjust and adapt to the new challenges put up by the shifts that take place at a social, economical and political level. After the harsh period of the economic crisis, several important steps are being taken in order to diminish the effects of this crisis and to adjust to the challenges of the implementation of the Europe 2020 Strategy. One of the most important objectives of said strategy is represented by Fighting poverty and social exclusion.

We as individuals or as organizations must undertake every possible action in order to diminish the effects of poverty and social exclusion by the development of new skills, knowledge management, consumer and employees competences, the diminishing of weaknesses and poverty of the vulnerable groups throughout Europe. Therefore we must understand the challenges brought on by the crisis and of the implementation of the Europe 2020 strategy and try to find the right answers in order to achieve the targets of the strategy in fields like:

1. Economics and Management;
2. Law and Administrative Sciences;
3. Human and Social Sciences;
4. Applied Sciences and Engineering.
